Privacy Statement

It is the intention of Direct Transact to protect all information gathered through the use of this website, whether it be personal information of users, clients or any other person who uses the website or the services supplied by means of this website. It is not the intention of Direct Transact to disclose any such information to any other party except, for it to be used as part of the services contained in this website.

Direct Transact will endeavour to safeguard the security and confidentiality of all information that is stored on the systems of Direct Transact. Direct Transact will further endeavour to use all means of protection of the privacy of our customers and users, whether it is by means of a registration, user identification and password control process as well as 128 bit encryption methods through the application of a registered Thawte certificate or any other means of encryption and protection of electronic communications that may be enforced by law. Information that is stored about our customers or system users will not be disclosed to any third party unless we are legally compelled to do so or when such disclosure is made at the request of our customers and users or upon their written consent.

The privacy policy must be read together with the Terms and Conditions for directtransact.co.za (the official internet address of Direct Transact) and the Security Policy.
